

THOMAS VILLUM

DIRECTOR & CREATIVE WRITER

WORK BY DIRECTOR

BIOGRAPHY

Tomas Villum Jensen was born in Copenhagen in 1971 – at the age of 6 he started acting in the local theater & at the age of 14 he started working in the local cinema in Hundested.

In 1990 he graduated from high school and started working as an actor, playing the lead in the Danish film The Boys from Skt. Petri, in the next 10 years he starred in more than 30 films and worked as a director on commercials. In 1997 he and school friend Anders Thomas Jensen got an Oscar nomination for the short film Ernest and the Light. In 1998 Tomas Villum Jensen directed his first feature film Love at first Hiccup and since the debut, he has directed another 6 feature films and more than 30 TV programs and more than 400 commercials.

Tomas is traveling a lot and especially the African continent has a special place in his heart.

The clients include: Danske Bank, Carlsberg, Stofa, HTH, First insurance, Ekspres Bank, Audi, BMW, Red Cross...

At the moment Tomas is involved in a documentary film in Kenya, a Danish feature film and several commercials.