

STORM/HANSEN

CREATIVE DIRECTING DUO

WORK BY DIRECTOR

BIOGRAPHY

After having established careers in Copenhagen as an editor and cinematographer respectively, Tue Walin Storm and Michael Hansen met at The American Film Institute (AFI) in Los Angeles. Here they quickly discovered they share an interest for similar cinematic themes and complement each other in terms of writing, storytelling and visual style.

After AFI they shot and directed music videos and commercials in Europe and the US for brands such as Ford, Heineken, Acura, Jaguar and Vodafone, which led to a collaboration with commercial director Nicolai Fuglsig on his feature film debut as well as a number of high profile commercials.

The duo is currently in pre-production on their thriller Angels while writing their next feature film Red Cabin – a character driven horror set in the Swedish outlands.

Storm/Hansen is signed with Radical Media for US and UK representation and Agent Zoo for the European and Asian territories.
