AWARD-WINNING DIRECTOR

WORK BY DIRECTOR

BIOGRAPHY

Michael Langhoff's pursuit to become one of Denmark's top photographers which began as an assistant to the legendary Danish Photographer Leif Schiller. Michael was so talented that HRH Queen of Denmark qualified him for a silver medal when graduating from Danish School of Photography.

Michael moved to NY to further enhance his photographic skills and returned to Denmark with great commercial work on his resume.

After a few years of shooting stills for the leading clients and agencies in Denmark, Michael transitioned into moving pictures.

In 2004 he was directing his first commercial for Nokia who was so pleased that 4 more commercials followed that same year! Since then he has worked with Carlsberg, Linie Aquavit, Skoda, Coca Cola Zero, Stark, Saxobank and SAS just to name a few.

He won a Creative Circle Award in 2013, The IAA Award and The True Award in 2010 as well as Aurora Awards in 2007, 2009 and 2010.

His talent for visual storytelling and directing people are key elements in his work which he still combine with shooting stills from time to time.
